W. W. ROBERTSON, CONNELL, KY.

THE RIVER, JUNE 25.—The river is still rising, though it has quite subsided from the last of its flood, and is now about 10 feet above the old level. The water was at 10 inches yesterday, with the wind blowing from the southward, ranging as high as 80.

At Cincinnati the river was steadily falling yesterday, with only about eight feet.

The Mississ. river, owing to the prevalence of the Higher Law at Madison, or rather the absence of ad law, had up until yesterday been very high, and the gage. If the people of Madison can stand it, we suppose our people here can, too. There had been no fir salutes from the banks of the river, but we have heard of some.

We are told that the ubiquitous Bewregard is advancing on Fairfax, where 3,000 of the Federals are posted, and a fight was expected last night. If it did take place, Lincoln had doubtless done his duty and taken a running start.

SECOND EDITION

FRIDAY MORNING JUNE 24.

MILITARY.

(All notices published under this heading will be charged five cents per line—payable in advance.)

187. K. G. C. Attention to all K. G. C. There will be a meeting this Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Davis' Hall, over the book store of W. W. Robertson. Come without fail! By order of CASTLE A.

K. S. G.
The Circular is dated at Cinc. June 18th, this afternoon, for the 8 o'clock train this AFTERNOON. Cest. Lyon will terminate.

A Collision imminent.

The telegraph gives further intelligence respecting the fight near Bonnville, Mo. There were four killed on each side, and a number wounded. Gen. Lyon's force got the best of the fight. He released the prisoners.

We are told that the ubiquitous Bewregard is advancing on Fairfax, where 3,000 of the Federals are posted, and a fight was expected last night. If it did take place, Lincoln had doubtless done his duty and taken a running start.

ELECTION RETURNS.

THE ELECTION IN LOUISVILLE.—The election here yesterday, for Congress, neither argues well for the popularity of Southern Rights nor for the interest of the city. Mr. Mallory claimed $600,000 majority and got a little upwards of $3,000, so will be seen by the annexed returns:
